About Ahrens and Flaherty

Although long-time songwriting teams have become a rarity, Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty have provided the exception. In 1988, they burst onto the New York theatre scene with the comic musical, "Lucky Stiff," and their partnership in words and music has flourished ever since.

Ahrens and Flaherty have received theatre, film and music's highest honors – the Tony Award, Drama Desk, Outer Critics Circle, Olivier Award and Gold Record; as well as nominations for two Academy Awards, to Golden Gloves and three Grammys. They serve on the Council of the Dramatists Guild of America and founded the Dramatists Guild Fellows Program. In 2014 they received the Oscar Hammerstein Award for Lifetime Achievement and in 2015 they were inducted into the Theater Hall of Fame
